

EXECUTING YOUR CLOUD ADOPTION STRATEGY WITH CLUSTER REPLY'S CLOUD ADOPTION FRAMEWORK

When embarking on cloud migration, it's vital to consider the best approach for your business needs. Whether you've taken that initial step into cloud, or are further along in your adoption journey, there are many considerations to ensure that you optimise the flexibility and cost models available.

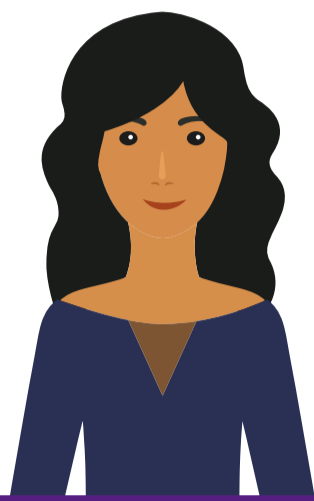

Through many years of experience in delivering Azure solutions, Cluster Reply, Microsoft Azure Expert MSP have developed a robust framework, which encompasses each stage of cloud migration. Our approach is based on six distinct phases which address common customer scenarios and help optimise and accelerate your investment.

Cluster Reply's Cloud Adoption Framework (CAF) provides expert guidance, best practices, and the tools designed to accelerate your cloud adoption journey.
